The Redanian Post Bank (Polish: Redański Bank Pocztowy) is a state-owned bank in Novigrad with an outpost in Tretogor, Redania's capital. The institution is influenced by the dwarven art of finance machinations, and enjoys considerable popularity in circles hostile towards nonhumans (i.e. the Church of the Eternal Fire and most of the aristocracy) and among the supporters of the unification of Novigrad with Redania. The royal bank is well guarded.[1]
